CANADIAN UKRAINIAN MUSIC HALL OF HONOUR AWARD POSTHUMOUS

Sponsored by CFCW and Vegreville Cultural Association

GUIDELINES

1. The Nominee shall be a deceased Alberta musician who made a significant and lasting contribution to Ukrainian-Canadian music.
2. Attach include a sampling (minimum 3 songs) of the Nominee's music for the Committee's review. Acceptable formats: CD, LP vinyl album, cassette tape, online link such as YouTube, mp3 files. The media will become the property of the Vegreville Cultural Association.
3. Attach a biography of the Nominee, which must include details of the Nominee's musical history, past performances, etc. The biography provided will be used in the Pysanka Festival souvenir program book, on website, social media, etc.
4. Attach a picture/photo of the Nominee, and email a digital image (jpeg/png/pdf) to info@pysankafestival.com.
5. Nominations will be accepted by Vegreville Cultural Association until March 15th. Unsuccessful nominations for a current year will be considered in succeeding years, if the media specified in section 2 is retained by Vegreville Cultural Association.
6. The Posthumous Award will be announced at the Opening Ceremony during the Annual Vegreville Ukrainian Pysanka Festival (scheduled for Friday at 2:00 PM). Family Representative or Nominator must be present to accept the award.
7. The decision of the committee struck shall be final.

Please mail application to address noted above, or drop off at the Vegreville Cultural Association office (call 780.632.2777 or email info@pysankafestival.com to make arrangements for drop off).
